Jason at the Fast Food Shop

Jason was at the fast food shop. He wanted to buy a hamburger, a can of cola and an apple pie. He is starving because he had just finished a five-hour long soccer competition.

'May I have a burger, a can of cola and an apple pie, please?' Jason asks the shop keeper. The shop keeper replies, 'Of course, sir.' 'How much is it?' he asks again. 'It's thirty dollars, sir.' She replies. 'Why did I only bring twenty dollars?' Jason mumbles to himself. He feels frustrated.

Jason thinks for a moment and says, 'I have a coupon that can act as ten dollars in my pocket. I'm so lucky!' He gives the coupon and his twenty dollars to the shop keeper and goes home, feeling happy.

The School Picnic

Today was the school picnic. I went to Ocean Park with my favourite teachers - Miss Ip and Miss Mak. We went there by school bus.

First, we went to the panda house and saw the baby pandas. They were so cute! Next, we went to the aquarium to see the sharks, one of my classmates named Casey got frightened and so for that we had to leave the aquarium. After that, we went to the walrus aquarium to see the walrus but it was closed so we left. We felt disappointed and sad. Luckily, we went to see the penguins. They were so funny that I burst out laughing!

Finally, we ate out lunch and got on the school bus. I hope we will come back soon.
